

TITLE:

Profile of the Contributors(alphabetical order)

AUTHOR(S):

---

CITATION:

Profile of the Contributors(alphabetical order). Lifelong education and libraries 2001, 1

ISSUE DATE:

2001-03

URL:

<http://hdl.handle.net/2433/43588>

RIGHT:

Profile of the contributors (alphabetical order)

ETTORE GELPI was responsible of the lifelong education Unit at Unesco. He was also president of La Ligue Internationale de l'enseignement, de l'education et de la culture populaire. Paris et vice-president of International Society for Universalism, Warsaw. He teaches in several universities in France, Spain, and Mexico etc.

SEIICHI HASEGAWA is associate professor in the Department of Human Relation at Soai College. He specializes in the history of modern Japanese thoughts on education, with an emphasis on the thoughts of Arinori Mori and Yukichi Fukuzawa.

JUNG SOO JUNG is a graduate student of library and information science, Graduate School of Education, Kyoto University. She is now engaged in studies of the multicultural library services in Japanese public libraries.

HIROSHI KAWAI is professor of library and information science in the College of Arts at Rikkyo (St. Paul) University. He has many published works both in German and Japanese. His main interests are in theories of book selection and German library history.

YOSHITAKA KAWASAKI is professor of library and information science, Graduate School of Education, Kyoto University. He has published many works on American library history and intellectual freedom in libraries.

YUJI KOSHIMIZU is associate professor in the Department of Education at Kumamoto University. His research focuses on the formative process of public education systems in modern France.

YASUSHI MAEHIRA is professor in the Graduate School of Education, Kyoto University. His main interests lies in the field of lifelong education, and nonformal education.

YOKO WATANABE is associate professor in the Graduate School of Education, Kyoto University. She mainly works on the history of nonformal education in modern Japan in gender perspective and on the comparative study between U.K. and Japan on the training of adult educators.